

It Ain't Over Community Rules

- 1. Respect and Kindness: Treat all members of the Community with respect, compassion, and kindness. Refrain from using offensive, discriminatory, or hateful language.
- 2. Authenticity: To ensure a safe, authentic, and trustworthy environment, It Ain't Over Community requires members to use their real names and profile pictures because using real names and profile pictures fosters accountability and transparency within the Community. This policy encourages members to take responsibility for their actions and words, promoting more thoughtful and respectful interactions, as well as building trust amongst Community members, as people are more likely to engage genuinely when they know they are interacting with real people. By requiring real names and profile pictures, the Community aims to create a space where members feel confident in sharing, supporting, and growing together in their faith journey.
- 3. Doctrinal Alignment: While we welcome diverse perspectives, all discussions and content must align with core Christian doctrines and teachings. Promoting unity in essential fundamental beliefs.
- 4. Constructive Dialogue: Engage in thoughtful, respectful, and solution-oriented discussions. Avoid unnecessary conflicts, heated debates, or the spreading of misinformation.
- 5. Solicitation: Soliciting of funds, goods, or services from other members is strictly prohibited. Violations will result in account suspension and potential termination and deletion. (Soliciting is the act of asking for)
- 6. Appropriate Content: Keep all posts, messages, and shared media appropriate for a Christian Community. No explicit or inappropriate content is allowed.

- 7. Protecting Privacy: Respect the privacy of other members and do not share personal information without their consent.
- 8. Moderation and Reporting: If you encounter any content or behavior that violates these rules, please report it to the Community Moderators for appropriate action.
- 9. Community Security: We prioritize the safety and security of our Community, employing the latest internet and cybersecurity protocols. However, it is each member's responsibility to exercise common sense when interacting with others and sharing personal information. Never trust anyone soliciting funds or goods unless you know them personally.
- 10. Commitment to Growth: Participate actively in the Community daily engaging with others and contributing to the overall growth and development of the entire Community.
- 11. Accountability and Discipleship: Members are encouraged to hold each other accountable and support one another in their Christian Walk, offering guidance and discipleship when appropriate.

By joining the It Ain't Over Virtual Christian Community, you agree to abide by these rules and guidelines. Failure to do so may result in temporary or permanent suspension from the Community. It Ain't Over Ministries cannot and will not be held responsible for any breaches, data loss, hacking, cyber-criminal activity, or damages resulting from members' failure to exercise common sense while interacting online and for not adhering to the established rules as set forth and outlined above.

The rules outlined above are subject to change with or without notice at any given time, and it is each member's responsibility to remain informed and aware of the Community rules and all legal documentation related to the overall operation and daily interactions within the Ministry and its associated Communities.
